The Honorable William E. Simon
The Secretary of the Treasury
Washington, D. C.

Dear Bill:

Thank you for your letter of 20 September requesting our help in sorting out the many issues involved in clarifying Mexico's foreign policy and likely initiatives toward the United States.

I agree that a thoughtful paper on the future course of Mexico's foreign policy and the international role it sees for itself would be of value and have requested my NIOs for Latin America and for Economics to jointly draft a terms of reference for your comments. They will be in touch shortly with Bill Morell in your Office of National Security to arrange appropriate Treasury participation.

Sincerely,

George Bush
